NOTES OF THANKS

Thank you for your support of Victory Ranch. Our soldiers continue to enjoy retreats here. From Carol Simning, Cadence International, Englewood, CO.

Thanks to our bulletin preparation volunteers who work each week to ensure we have the best worship experience possible! Our editor, Mrs. Harriett Gardner, pours over each word and makes the most enlightened suggestions and corrections every week. Meanwhile, Ms. Polly Jennings folds the mailouts, and she and Mr. Clyde Boyer refold, tape, label and sort each one before completing a report and taking the batch to the post office. Ms. Jennings also folds the worship bulletins and inserts all those reservation and special informational pages, then makes sure there are plenty of the large print versions prepared as well. We couldn't do it without your help, each of you! Thanks, again!

From UMCOR: Thank you for your generous gift of $120 on December 21st. One hundred percent will go to Material Resource Ministry through The Advance, the designated giving channel of The United Methodist Church. Your gifts go a long way to bring healing and hope to people in need. Grace and Peace, Roland Fernandes, General Treasurer, and Shawn Bakker, Associate General Secretary, The Advance.

MEN'S CLUB SWEETHEART DINNER

This coming Tuesday, February 7th, is the date for the next United Methodist Men's meeting. The Sweetheart Dinner will be made even sweeter by the romantic songs of Ms. Kate McKinney, one of our Chancel Choir singers. We'll arrange the evening so that we go through the buffet line, and then are entertained in song while we dine. Please make your reservations so everything can be well planned.

MUSIC NOTES

This week the Men sing an anthem by themselves called "Day by Day/All Night, All Day." We welcome Mr. Michael Sumter to our piano this week during worship. He has been visiting and agreed to share his piano talents and skills. Mr. Jim Stubbs will sing a communion solo for us, "He Touched Me."
